

New Signage on Campus

New SDCCD signs reinforce that immigration enforcement activities are prohibited on SDCCD property.

What the signs say

“This property is owned by the San Diego Community College District (SDCCD). This property may only be used for purposes that have been authorized by SDCCD and may not be used for immigration enforcement staging areas, processing locations, or any related operations.”

9 are located at San Diego Mesa College. A total of 68 signs will be installed across the SDCCD. The signs support existing California law and District policy restricting immigration enforcement activity on campus.

New Sign Location

